Let it be known that prizes are what keep racers coming back but that our local sponsors are ultimately those who make the event happen, with some very large $ and infrastructure contributions.

Cabrillo Beach Bathhouse www.cabrillobeachbathhouse.org : the Boosters are a not-for-profit organization dedicated to the resurgence and vitality of Cabrillo Beach. They are well known locally for spearheading the spectacular 4th of July fireworks, a titanic fundraising and logistics task. Gary Dwight and Allan Johnson are at the helm and the Boosters paid the vast majority of the bills related to this event: lifeguards, music, food, flyers, banners, boat fuel, and a bunch of miscellaneous “stuff” that adds up. The Boosters also provided considerable administrative assistance with the very talented Kelly Signorelli. Kelly and her husband Mike also went way above the call of duty for contributing countless volunteer hours. The contributions of the Boosters were supported by added funds from a number of local and regional organizations including San Pedro Coastal, Central, and Northwest Neighborhood Councils, the Port of LA and Councilwoman Janice Hahn’s 15th District Office.

Cabrillo Beach
Bathhouse www.cabrillobeachbathhouse.org /

Thank you to Jib Kelly and Sharon Terrones for your enthusiasm.

Numerous behind the scenes sponsors played a leading role this year, with a major upgrade to our graphics, advertising and web interface.

Hauser Advertising www.hauser-advertising.com : thanks to Cliff Hauser for creating the new gorgeous event graphics pro-bono, and to the whole family, including son Casey and wife Janice, for being such spirited supporters of our event.

iWINDSURF www.iWindsurf.com : if you’ve visited iWindsurf’s great site and forums, you may have noticed a cool, whimsical event banner ad bobbing up and down; the premium online space was donated thanks to George Hays of iWindsurf.

WindJunkie www.windjunkie.net : we thank Debi and Spencer Thompson for their tireless enthusiasm, and for Debi for her outstanding website work and support throughout the year.

A number of other local sponsors kept us hydrated, fed and well rested throughout the event.
